

just leave things as they are. Don't go with special interest groups. Banks build new buildings but pay no interest.